

Freedom Training to work with men

CPD ACCREDITED for 5 Hours

This training is only open to facilitators who have completed the official Freedom Programme three-day CPD 15-point accredited facilitator training of which Pat Craven is the sole provider.

This training will equip the facilitator with the knowledge required to run the Freedom Programme with men who seek to improve their behaviour.

This course is ideal for facilitators who come into contact with perpetrators as part of their day to day work. Facilitators will gain skills that will allow them to avoid collusion, recognise controlling behaviours and most importantly identify behaviours which seek to groom professionals.
