

FREEDOM FOR MEN

Terms and Conditions

If you are still in a relationship, we will not accept your application unless your partner comes with you so she can observe your progress or lack of it.

You will purchase a copy of 'Living with the Dominator' and a copy of 'How Hard Can it be.'

You will read these publications before attending the course and bring them with you to the venue. These are available to purchase from Amazon'. Here is the link

<https://www.freedomprogramme.co.uk/book.php>

When we have enough applications to go ahead with the course, we will notify you of the date and location within the Leigh Lancashire area.

Men who attend this course are not permitted to share any personal information with either the facilitators or the other delegates.

Everyone who attends must behave in a pleasant, polite and respectful manner or they will be asked to leave.

All mobile phones must be switched off.

We never provide certificates of completion and never under any circumstances will we provide reports for courts or any other agency.

I agree to comply with these terms and conditions

Name of applicant

Signature of applicant

Email address

If you are still in a relationship, name of partner